Note: The Division will be updating the list of independent licensee applicants which are eligible to conduct activities regularly. However, the list will not be updated daily, so if you have any questions regarding the eligibility of the company with which you are dealing to conduct activities, you should contact the Division.

Homeowners: The above Chapter 645F independent licensee applicants are eligible to conduct activities of a loan modification consultant, foreclosure consultant or covered service provider and have deposited a surety bond or substitute form of security with the Division. Companies which are not listed above are not eligible to conduct activities unless otherwise exempt. Please see Frequently Asked Question No. 18 on the Division's website regarding the attorney exemption to Chapter 645F licensing requirements. If you are dealing with a company which is not listed above, you should contact the Division to determine if the company is exempt from licensing requirements. If the company is not exempt from licensing requirements, you should contact the company with which you are dealing to transfer your files, moneys and contracts to a bonded independent licensee applicant, HUD-approved counseling service or other company exempt from licensing requirements. If you are unable to reach the company with which you are dealing, or if the company refuses to transfer your files, moneys and contracts, you should complete the Consumer Complaint Form which is posted on the Division's website, www.mld.nv.gov, under the Forms link, and submit it to the Division so that the Division may conduct an investigation and take administrative and disciplinary action, as appropriate.

If you have any questions concerning the foregoing, please contact the Licensing Supervisor, Char Linch, at (775) 684-7058 or clinch@mld.nv.gov, or Supervisory Examiner, Sheila Walther, at (775) 684-7055 or swalther@mld.nv.gov.
